Training Manual for the RRR Safety Team

RECOGNIZE RETREAT & REPORT

Safety at the former Benicia Arsenal

The United States Army needs your help. We have created a special safety team to keep you safe from ordnance and explosives (OE) at the former Benicia Arsenal.

OE includes items such as bullets, grenades and shells. Rusty Raccoon is the officer in charge and he wants you to help.

Take the challenge.

Complete this training manual to become a certified member of the RRR Safety Team.

Congratulations!

You have successfully navigated the training manual and earned the honor of Junior Ranger in the RRR Safety Team.

Sign the pledge below to complete your certification.

I, _____ pledge
to always be safe and aware of my surroundings. When I RECOGNIZE OE-like objects, I will RETREAT and REPORT
what I find to an adult.

Adults should report the findings to the Benicia Police Department by calling 745-3412.

Find and circle these words in the box above.
They are found across, down and diagonal.

Can you RECOGNIZE dangerous objects in or on the ground? Circle the things on this page that are not safe to touch.
Color everything else.

Soldiers in the RRR Safety Team are trained to recognize dangerous objects, RETREAT and report the location. Can you show the children how to avoid dangerous OE and get to Rusty Raccoon?

Help Rusty Raccoon REPORT what you found on page 3. Connect the dots starting with number 1.
